EXHIBITIONS

Generations Exhibit

Father - Daughter Works of Art

Featuring Katie Truemner Bruessow & Mitchell Truemner

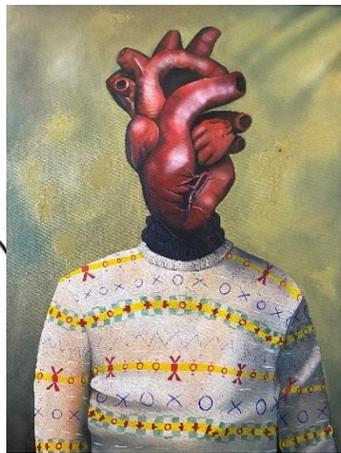

We are delighted to feature the large-scale paintings of this exceptionally talented family in our Bayliss gallery.

Katie Truemner Bruessow attended Kendall College of Art and Design with a BFA in Illustration and a focus on Furniture Design. After graduating Katie worked in the mass production market in both home furnishings and painting, selling to companies like Ashley Furniture and Jeffrey Alans. Painting has always been the core of Katie's creative work. Her creative process is set free by her loose style which is often reflected in her favorite subject matter - nature.

Mitchell Truemner attended Delta College with an art concentration in the late 70s. He has been the featured artist in Traverse City's Michigan Artist Gallery and the Traverse City's Opera House. Truemner's abstract paintings evoke a sense of spirituality. He is greatly influenced by the wooded areas of northern Michigan, as well as the painters Joan Mitchell and Brian Rutenburg. On exhibit through 4/16.

Admission to all of our gallery exhibits is free and we are grateful for your donations that allow us to continue this policy. Call for weekend and evening hours.

Tuesday, April 11 – Jean-Michel Basquiat

Basquiat was a graffiti artist and painter working in the 70s and 80s who used an abstract, primitive style that stripped visuals down to their essential meaning. He had a difficult childhood, and went from homeless teen to selling paintings for thousands of dollars in a couple of years. He used symbols to tell his story and discuss difficult issues. Using acrylics and paint markers we will, like a graffiti artist, learn to work in layers as we choose shapes, symbols, and words to tell our story on an 11x14 canvas. In another nod to street art and the idea of artists adding to, and layering over, each other's work, we will also make our mark on a collaborative canvas that will be displayed in the community. This workshop is a perfect guided intro to abstract art.

Date TBA - Carol Rossetti Comic Portraits

Rossetti is a current Brazilian artist known for her “Women Project,” a series of illustrations featuring comic style portraits of real people sharing their insecurities or times they felt judged. She pairs these stories with positive affirmations. Learn to illustrate simplified comic-style people in ink and watercolor and practice fun lettering styles.
