Our Mission

To create environments that allow people of all ages and abilities to experience the creative process, and to enhance physical, mental and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities.

Core Values

Inclusiveness – No matter your age, gender, race, beliefs, skills or life circumstances, you are welcome at Creative 360 and are free to be yourself.

Creativity – We believe that imagination and free expression are essential to any person's life. We see creativity not as a finished product, but a journey of discovery, so we provide a non-judgmental atmosphere where all work is treasured.

Respect – We respect not only people, but also ideas. We are open to new and non-traditional programming. We believe in the power of saying "yes."

Community – We believe that unity and compassion are components of a strong society. We work to bring people together.

EXHIBITIONS

The Art of M. Lee Mitchell

DOWNTOWN @ THE ASHMAN STREET GALLERIES

M. Lee Mitchell was a visual artist and art educator, born in Illinois, raised in Kentucky, and educated in Michigan. After a 30+ year career in the Taylor Michigan Public Schools, he retired 'back to the land' which had inspired his work since his childhood days. "During the spring, farmers would turn-over the fields making them ready for the crops. My brother and I would go out and play in these fields. It was during these moments that I began to paint with my imagination, the fields were teeming with worms, bugs, seeds, and pods. It was alive!"

Lee passed away in 2021, only six months after moving to Midland with his wife to be nearer to his son and family. Creative 360 is honored to exhibit the work of this talented and introspective artist. On exhibit through March. Images L to R: Sea of Earth / Swallow View

Admission to all our gallery exhibits is free and we are grateful for your donations that allow us to continue this policy. Call for weekend and evening hours.

Midland Artists Guild - Annual Juried Exhibition

Creative 360 is pleased to welcome Midland Artists Guild for their 40th Annual Juried Exhibition as they continue their mission of fostering individual participation and personal growth in the visual arts and furthering their commitment to supporting artists throughout the Great Lakes Bay Region.

Painting, fine art photography, fiber, woodworking, ceramics, stained glass, and more will be exhibited. Awards will be announced during the opening reception. On exhibit through 4/28. Image: 2023 Best in Show, Catan Player 2 by Jason Woertick.

Opening Reception: Friday, March 22 / 7:00 - 8:30 pm / Free and open to the public

Admission to all of our gallery exhibits is free and we are grateful for your donations that allow us to continue this policy. Call for weekend and evening hours.

The Great Lakes iPhoneography Group, An Overview

iPhoneography is the art of creating photos with an iPhone where images are both shot and processed on the iOS device. The focus is on creating images by building them through a process that resembles painting and collage rather than traditional photography and photo editing. The element of surprise is a key component, leading to the exploration of new ideas that may not have been possible through other means. On Exhibit through 6/9.

Spencer LaJoye in Concert

Spencer LaJoye (luh-JOY) is an East Coast singer/songwriter from the Midwest making queer indie folk music for everyone. The 2021 Kerrville Songwriting Competition winner spins crystalline vocals through a loop pedal while strumming an acoustic guitar in charming, banter-heavy performances that keep audiences laughing one moment and weeping the next.

They've been writing and touring their own autobiographical folk/pop music for over a decade, but the virality of their 2021 anthem "Plowshare Prayer" secured them a permanent place in hearts and households across the world, as well as a peculiar career as a veracious songsmith with an unshakeable pastoral presence.

We are also excited to announce that we have partnered with The Blue Light to bring in Abby Doran, to open for Spencer!

You can hear Spencer HERE: <https://youtu.be/MhOZv5i7CHY>

"Reflective and evocative folk/pop...LaJoye not only knows how to tell a story but how to create drama in the melodies" ~ Gary Schwind, Glide Magazine

MIDLAND MAN SCOUTS

Come be a part of the inaugural Midland Man Scouts!
Make friends · Make enemies · Earn badges!

WHAT: Men developing camaraderie and a social network through participation in a variety of tasks/challenges/competitions to earn badges.

HOW: We will meet up to chat and pick tasks, challenges, competitions to complete. For instance, we might task each member to write one sentence about their life each day for fourteen days. At the next session, members share what they completed. We might challenge everyone to pick one health related behavior and do that for two weeks, reporting back to the group. The competition will obviously be arm wrestling. Group members will be encouraged to plan and participate in mutually beneficial outings.

Let's show this loneliness epidemic who is boss!

Beginning IMPROV

Held DOWNTOWN @ The East Ashman Galleries - 144 East Ashman

"This is the coolest thing happening in Midland right now!" ~ A student

Improv is a lively, active, team sport that encourages us to live in the moment, connect with our teammates and explore the spaces outside of our comfort zones together. Coach Ariel Rak will get you up and playing right from the start. Through games and exercises we will develop creativity, flexibility, friendships and thinking skills in a safe and nurturing environment. For those with no improv experience or those who just miss it.

You don't need to be funny... you just need to be there! Ages 18+

Coach Ariel Rak studied and performed short and long form improv with Magnet Theater (NYC) and the N.J. School of Dramatic Arts and was a member of ComedySportz before moving to Midland.

Garden Classes with Phoenix Community Farm

Creative 360 and Phoenix Community Farm are partnering to bring a variety of interesting and informative gardening classes.

Phoenix Community Farm is non-profit farm that serves the Midland community with fresh produce and education about growing, harvesting, preparing, eating, and preserving produce. Their vision is of a sustainable, vibrant community growing and eating healthy food together.

Composting – Thursday, April 4 / 6:30 – 7:30 pm. Free! Please let us know you are coming. What's the best thing for your garden and helps reduce waste? It's composting! Come learn new strategies and get started composting in your backyard.

Diving Deeper into Watercolor with Nancy Philo

Continue exploring this beautiful water medium with painter Nancy Philo. You will learn more advanced techniques: mixing greys, the differences in pigments (opacity, transparency, etc.), and how to use watercolors in layers to create landscapes and still life works.

We will work from photos and from life and strive to create compelling compositions. Other materials added to watercolor will be demonstrated and tried as well.

Bring your goals and ideas to the first class. This is a positive and safe learning environment. Materials list sent upon registration. Preregistration required by 4/6.

Nancy Philo (B.F.A painting, M.Ed.) is an award-winning artist and master teacher whose work appears in public and private collections in the U.S., Europe, and Asia. You can see her most recent work at Nancy Philo Art on Facebook or @nensiart on Instagram.

Fiction Writers' Workshop

Do you dream of writing a novel, or at least starting one? Is your computer's hard drive full of manuscripts you've slaved over -- but haven't quite had the stomach to show anyone? Whatever your experience, if you have an interest in the craft of storytelling, Fiction Writers' Workshop is for you.

In this six-week program, you'll learn the building blocks of fiction: point-of-view, voice/style, dialog, description and appropriate level of detail, characterization, and plot structure. Each session will include a lesson featuring readings relevant to the above, a free period where you'll have the opportunity to write from a range of prompts (or make up your own!), and an optional sharing time during which you can receive constructive feedback from the instructor and fellow classmates.

There's no easy recipe for writing a smash bestseller or the Great American Novel, but at the end of this course, you will know the basics and understand how to move forward in your writing journey. Class content will be tailored to participants' interest and may include sidebars on forms like memoir or nonfiction, the nuts and bolts of self vs. traditional publishing, discipline and writers' mental health, and other topics.

The course instructor is Jeff Bond, a Midland resident and Yale graduate. Jeff is the author of six mystery/thriller titles including The Pinebox Vendetta, winner of the 2020 Independent Publisher Book Award in Popular Fiction. His last three books received starred commendation from Kirkus Reviews, with Anarchy of the Mice and Dear Durwood named to the publication's Best 100 Indie Books of 2020.

Ages 17 and up please. Preregistration required.

Wednesdays, 6:30 – 8:30 pm / March 6, 13, 20, (no class 3/27), April 3, 10, 17 / $90

Art Journaling

Let's have fun combining recycled materials and art journaling basics to create one-of-a-kind journals that reflect your interests and personality. We will repurpose old books and then start adding mixed media to pages. Our exploration will include what to put in your journal, how to start pages, basic supplies and more. We will discuss where to look for inspiration and how to keep your creativity flowing. A great class for both beginners and experts. At the end of the workshop, you will receive a special packet to help you continue your art making. With Julie Welsh. Bring your lunch! There will be a ½ hour break. Material list provided upon registration.

Saturday, April 27 / 10:00 am – 5:00 pm / $60

Experimental Drawing with Valerie Allen & Armin Mersmann

Dive into the best of both artists' world where creativity knows no bounds. You will learn the intricacies of contour and tonal drawing and the accidental process of frottage under Armin's guidance while Valerie will open your eyes to the endless possibilities of textured and toothy drawing grounds, giving your creations an avant-garde twist.

Expect projects that challenge your conventional thinking and encourage you to explore innovative concepts. Experimenting with materials such as graphite, charcoal, India ink, molding pastes, and micaceous Iron oxide will push the boundaries of your artistic expression. In addition, you will craft your own drawing tools and hone skills with traditional pencils, brushes, and pens.

Get ready to unleash your creativity and embark on a journey of artistic discovery like never before!

Bring your lunch each day.

Acrylic gels & grounds provided. A material list will be upon registration.
