Events + Classes · Winter 2024 (v2)

Our Mission

To create environments that allow people of all ages and abilities to experience the creative process, and to enhance physical, mental and spiritual wellness through the arts and humanities.

Core Values

Inclusiveness – No matter your age, gender, race, beliefs, skills or life circumstances, you are welcome at Creative 360 and are free to be yourself.

Creativity – We believe that imagination and free expression are essential to any person's life. We see creativity not as a finished product, but a journey of discovery, so we provide a non-judgmental atmosphere where all work is treasured.

Respect – We respect not only people, but also ideas. We are open to new and non-traditional programming. We believe in the power of saying “yes.”

Community – We believe that unity and compassion are components of a strong society. We work to bring people together.

The Art of M. Lee Mitchell

DOWNTOWN @ THE ASHMAN STREET GALLERIES

M. Lee Mitchell was a visual artist and art educator, born in Illinois, raised in Kentucky, and educated in Michigan. After a 30+ year career in the Taylor Michigan Public Schools, he retired 'back to the land' which had inspired his work since his childhood days.

"During the spring, farmers would turn-over the fields making them ready for the crops. My brother and I would go out and play in these fields. It was during these moments that I began to paint with my imagination, the fields were teeming with worms, bugs, seeds, and pods. It was alive!"

Lee passed away in 2021, only six months after moving to Midland with his wife to be nearer to his son and family. Creative 360 is honored to exhibit the work of this talented and introspective artist. On exhibit through March.

Spencer LaJoye in Concert

Spencer LaJoye (luh-JOY) is an East Coast singer/songwriter from the Midwest making queer indie folk music for everyone. The 2021 Kerrville Songwriting Competition winner spins crystalline vocals through a loop pedal while strumming an acoustic guitar in charming, banter-heavy performances that keep audiences laughing one moment and weeping the next.

They've been writing and touring their own autobiographical folk/pop music for over a decade, but the virality of their 2021 anthem "Plowshare Prayer" secured them a permanent place in hearts and households across the world, as well as a peculiar career as a veracious songsmith with an unshakeable pastoral presence.

We are also excited to announce that we have partnered with The Blue Light to bring in Abby Doran, to open for Spencer!

You can hear Spencer HERE: <https://youtu.be/MhOZv5i7CHY>

"Reflective and evocative folk/pop...LaJoye not only knows how to tell a story but how to create drama in the melodies" ~ Gary Schwind, Glide Magazine

"a deeply personal and intensely creative exploration" ~ Jason M. Burns, Americana Highways

Saturday, March 30 / 6:30 pm / BYOB & snacks. A $20 donation is suggested at the door

Creative 360 and Memorial Presbyterian Church present: Andy Gullahorn in Concert

"I am a bowling, badmintoning, high-fiving, disc golfing, nick-naming, basketballing fun facilitator. I am also a singer/songwriter in my spare time."

Andrew Gullahorn is an American musician and music producer who plays a folk-rock style of Christian pop. His 2009 hit, "I Haven't Either" has touched the lives of listeners of all denominations.

Co-sponsored by Creative 360 and Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Saturday, April 20 / 7:00 - 9:00 pm / $25 in advance, $30 at the door

Midland Reads Poetry

Sponsored by Cheryl and Larry Levy

Oil Painting for the Absolute Beginner

Do you dream of being the next Bob Ross? Painting with oils can seem like a challenge compared to watercolor and acrylics and new artists are often told that it is a medium for experienced artists. But here at Creative 360 we say nonsense – be Bob Ross! Brian Glover is an artist who has recently begun working with oil paint and would love to share the best ways to get started. Absolutely NO experience is necessary, we will even provide the paints and canvas for the first class! You will learn value, mixing, how to use different brush types and more. And you will complete a painting in each of the 4 classes. A materials list will be sent upon registration. With Brian Glover. Preregistration required. Mondays, January 22, 29, February 5, 12 / 10:00 am – 12:00 pm / $90

Garden Classes with Phoenix Community Farm

Creative 360 and Phoenix Community Farm are partnering to bring a variety of interesting and informative gardening classes.

Phoenix Community Farm is non-profit farm that serves the Midland community with fresh produce and education about growing, harvesting, preparing, eating, and preserving produce. Their vision is of a sustainable, vibrant community growing and eating healthy food together.

Thursdays / 6:30 – 7:30 pm / Free! Please let us know you are coming

Vegetable Gardening 101 - February 15

This class is for beginner/novice gardeners interested in growing their own produce. Basic information such as choosing a site, planting and harvesting will be covered.

Seed Starting - March 7

For those interested in vegetable varieties not sold in stores, this class is for you. We'll cover all the basics of successful seed starting right at home.

Gardening 201 - March 21

If you've been gardening for more than a season or two, and want to increase your yields, join us! We'll cover in-depth topics of vegetable production, including crop rotation, intensive plantings and unique varieties. This class will be more conversational, so come with lots of questions.

Composting - April 4

What's the best thing for your garden and helps reduce waste? It's composting! Come learn new strategies and get started composting in your backyard.

WATERCOLOR

The Gateway to all Painting Techniques

Watercolor is an elusive and beautiful painting medium that can be practiced anywhere with minimal equipment investment.

Learn and practice all of the foundational techniques including wash, glaze, lifting out, reserving whites, adding pen detailing, and more. Subject matter will include landscapes, florals, and more. This class is appropriate for ALL levels – no experience is necessary, however those with some background will learn new techniques and skills.

Students can register with or without a materials fee added. It is recommended that students who have none of the materials listed sign up with the fee as this will represent an overall savings. We will discuss the best materials to ensure success at the first class.

Materials List:

Large soft bristled wash brush- at least 2-4" wide

Medium watercolor brush that will hold a point #12-18

Basic watercolor pigments: alizarin crimson and cadmium red, ultramarine or cobalt blue and cerulean blue, viridian green or sap green, burnt umber, ochre, aureolin yellow, cadmium yellow

Palette or a China plate

Paper: at least 140# cotton rag weight. We will discuss paper and other surfaces in class.

Nancy Philo (B.F.A painting, M.Ed.) is an award-winning artist and master teacher whose work appears in public and private collections in the U.S., Europe, and Asia. You can see her most recent work at Nancy Philo Art on Facebook or @nensiart on Instagram. Preregistration required.

Sundays, 1:00 – 3:00 pm

Feb. 18, 25, Mar. 3, 10, 17, 24 / $120 without materials, $150 with materials

Fiction Writers' Workshop

Do you dream of writing a novel, or at least starting one? Is your computer's hard drive full of manuscripts you've slaved over -- but haven't quite had the stomach to show anyone? Whatever your experience, if you have an interest in the craft of storytelling, Fiction Writers' Workshop is for you.

In this six-week program, you'll learn the building blocks of fiction: point-of-view, voice/style, dialog, description and appropriate level of detail, characterization, and plot structure. Each session will include a lesson featuring readings relevant to the above, a free period where you'll have the opportunity to write from a range of prompts (or make up your own!), and an optional sharing time during which you can receive constructive feedback from the instructor and fellow classmates.

There's no easy recipe for writing a smash bestseller or the Great American Novel, but at the end of this course, you will know the basics and understand how to move forward in your writing journey. Class content will be tailored to participants' interest and may include sidebars on forms like memoir or nonfiction, the nuts and bolts of self vs. traditional publishing, discipline and writers' mental health, and other topics.

The course instructor is Jeff Bond, a Midland resident and Yale graduate. Jeff is the author of six mystery/thriller titles including The Pinebox Vendetta, winner of the 2020 Independent Publisher Book Award in Popular Fiction. His last three books received starred commendation from Kirkus Reviews, with Anarchy of the Mice and Dear Durwood named to the publication's Best 100 Indie Books of 2020.

Ages 17 and up please. Preregistration required.

Wednesdays, 6:30 – 8:30 pm / March 6, 13, 20, (no class 3/27), April 3, 10, 17 / $90

Art Journaling

Let's have fun combining recycled materials and art journaling basics to create one-of-a-kind journals that reflect your interests and personality. We will repurpose old books and then start adding mixed media to pages. Our exploration will include what to put in your journal, how to start pages, basic supplies and more. We will discuss where to look for inspiration and how to keep your creativity flowing. A great class for both beginners and experts. At the end of the workshop, you will receive a special packet to help you continue your art making. With Julie Welsh. Bring your lunch! There will be a ½ hour break. Material list provided upon registration.

Saturday, April 27 / 10:00 am – 5:00 pm / $60

WELLNESS

Tai Chi 360

Also known as “moving meditation,” tai chi is a series of slow, gentle motions that are patterned after movements in nature. It has many health benefits for both body and mind and promotes an overall sense of well-being, vitality, and inner calm. The class offers deep, internal understanding of the practice and whether this is your first time or you've been practicing for years, you are welcome! Taught in an open, friendly atmosphere. With Dianna Cole.

Tuesdays, February 6 / 11:00 – 11:45 am / $5 drop-in
